¹ The Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) charter is a globally respected, graduate-level investment credential established in 1962 and awarded by CFA Institute. To earn the CFA charter, candidates must: 1) pass three sequential, six-hour examinations; 2) have at least four years of qualified professional investment experience; 3) join CFA Institute as members; and 4) commit to abide by, and annually reaffirm, their adherence to the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct.

² The CFP[®] certification is granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. To attain the right to use the CFP[®] marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements: 1) complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing financial planning subject areas and attain a Bachelor's Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university; 2) pass the 10-hour two-day CFP[®] Certification Examination; 3) have at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience; and 4) agree to be bound by CFP Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP[®] professionals.

³The Accredited Wealth Management Advisor (AWMA[®]) designation is an industry-benchmark and is granted to individuals who have completed a course study encompassing wealth strategies, equity based compensation plans, tax reduction alternatives, and asset protection alternatives.

⁴The Certified Trust and Financial Advisor (CTFA) certification is a recognizable standard of knowledge and competency for the trust and wealth advisory field. The CTFA designation formally recognizes those professionals who meet these standards.

Item 3 Disciplinary Information

None of our employees have been the subject of any legal or disciplinary actions.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

Jeffrey P. Blatter, CFP®, has a separate business, JPB Tax Preparation, doing income tax work for clients. This business is not affiliated with ODCM, ODCM does not supervise this business, and ODCM is not responsible for it. Any ODCM clients using his services will pay his fees in addition to ODCM's investment advisory fees. ODCM clients are not required to use his independent tax services. No other employees are actively engaged in any other investment-related business or occupation.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

None of our employees receive compensation from non-clients for providing advisory services. All advisory compensation is paid by clients directly.

Item 6 Supervision

As Managing Director of ODCM, Jim Childress is primarily responsible for supervision of our employees' advisory activities and advice provided to our clients. J. Dawn Heneberry, with Jim Childress, is a Managing Director of ODCM and also responsible for supervision of our employees' advisory activities and advice provided to our clients. Maurée Barrett is the firm's Chief Compliance Officer. We have written policies and procedures, which include the use of investment policy statements signed by both the client and the advisor, restrictions on employees personal trading, and prohibitions against trading based on material non-public information. Jim and Maurée regularly monitor these and other elements of the firm's policies and procedures to assure compliance.
